

What is ULI?

ULI - the Urban Land Institute, is a non-profit research and education organization. ULI membership provides a valuable opportunity to explore and discuss local real estate issues that affect you. ULI members are real estate professionals who are committed to growing new ideas and improving their communities. Our mission is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide.

Our Members

Our strength lies in our diverse, expert membership consisting of developers, urban/rural planners, architects, builders, contactors, engineers, consultants, lawyers, elected professionals and policy analysts.

What is YLG?

The Young Leaders Group (YLG) a subset of ULI San Diego/Tijuana provides a unique multi-disciplinary forum for young professionals under the age of 35 to gather industry knowledge and develop their leadership skills. It's a great place to form a network of peers who are shaping the future of real estate in the greater San Diego region. Our Young Leaders group offers several events each year including networking socials and roundtable forums where small groups are teamed with a real estate industry leader.

Membership Benefits

The Urban Land Institute YLG membership offers significant value and privileges to students and young professionals who enroll with ULI San Diego/Tijuana, such as:

- Publications
- Learning
- Networking
